Get to Know NSC's 2012 Leadership Council

NSC is excited to announce the members of our 2012 Leadership Council, who will serve as the official programmatic advisory body to NSC's staff and Board this year. Representing over twenty states, the 62-member Council features some of the Coalition's leading members from a broad cross-section of stakeholders including community-based training organizations, colleges, public workforce agencies, unions, employer associations, and advocacy groups. Council members are nominated by NSC's Board of Directors. Learn more.

NSC Welcomes Van Ton-Quinlivan to Board of Directors

Van Ton-Quinlivan, Vice Chancellor of Economic and Workforce Development for California's Community Colleges, will join NSC's national Board of Directors. Prior to her appointment as Vice Chancellor by Gov. Jerry Brown in July 2011, Van served as the Director of Workforce Development at Pacific Gas & Electric (PG&E), where she architected PG&E PowerPathway, a nationally recognized best practice model program in workforce development. In 2010, Van was selected as one of ten industry leaders invited to inform the Education and Training Subcommittee of President Obama's Economic Recovery Advisory Board on the workforce needs of industry, and was one of five corporate leaders invited to attend the first ever White House Community College Summit. Learn more about Van, as well as the other individuals leading the Coalition's efforts.

Carole Andre Joins the NSC Team

We are pleased to announce the arrival of Carole Andre, NSC's new Controller. Carole brings decades of experience in domestic and international financial consulting, providing a wide range of services related to finance, budgeting, grants and contracts. Before joining the Coalition, Carole was Controller for the Clinton HIV/AIDS Initiative of the William J. Clinton Foundation. Prior to that, she was the Controller and Chief Compliance Officer for the Association for Enterprise Opportunity and Program Financial and Compliance Officer for PLAN International, USA.
