

Jan L. Hunter

Director of Workforce Planning and Organizational Effectiveness, John Muir Health Walnut Creek, CA

Partner of National Skills Coalition

Jan Hunter has served as director of workforce planning and organizational effectiveness for John Muir Health since 2003. Prior to joining John Muir Health, Jan held senior level positions at Towers/Watson and at various Silicon Valley firms. She is an active board member for the Workforce Investment Board, the Diablo Valley College Foundation Board and is vice chair of the California Hospital Association Healthcare Workforce Development Committee. She is passionate about creating workforce development programs for youth and adults that focus on developing long term educational and employment opportunities for the community she serves. Jan obtained an M.B.A. from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.

John Muir Health is a nationally recognized, not-for-profit health care organization located east of San Francisco, serving patients in Contra Costa, eastern Alameda and southern Solano Counties. It includes a network of 925 primary care and specialty physicians, more than 6,000 employees, medical centers in Concord and Walnut Creek, including the county's only trauma center, and a Behavioral Health Center. The health system also offers a full-range of medical services, including primary care, outpatient, lab and imaging services, and is widely recognized as a leader in many specialties – neurosciences, orthopedic, cancer, cardiovascular, emergency and high-risk obstetrics care.
